READY FOR THE RALLY.

W. C. T. U. to Hold a Great Mass Meeting on Sunday.

There will be one of the greatest temper ance meetings ever held in the Metropoli-tan M. E. Church, corner of Four and a half and C streets northwest, on Sunday afternoon, October 27, at 3 o'clock.
It is entitled the "World's W. C. T. U.

Mass-meeting," and is under the auspices of the Department of Christian Citizenship. Mrs. S. D. La Fetra, the world's su ship. Mrs. S. D. La Fetra, the world's maperintendent, will preside,
This meeting, indiowing as it does, so closely upon the meeting of the national convention of the W. C. T. U., recently held in Baltimore, will be attended by some of the Brightest lights in the temperatee world. Many of the delegates and prominent workers in the cause who attended the Baltimore rally will remain in this city until Sunday afternoon, in order to participate in this assembly.

An address on "Christian Citizenship," by Mrs. Katharine Lente Stevenson, will then follow.

Ray Stolen Articles. James Ray, a saloon-keeper on D street, between Thirteenth and Thirteen-and-ahaif street northwest, was on trial before Judge Cox, in criminal court No. 2, yester-day, on the charge of receiving stolen prop-

When Levi Poindexter and "Blood" Jones made their daring robbery of the jewelry store of Dominick Rickenbacker, on G street, inst July, and took nearly a score of watches, valued in the aggregate at $700, Poindexter went off to Baltimore and New York to dispose of part of the plander. Jones remained behind and dealt tot the timeprices among his confidential friends.

He claimed that he sold two of them to Ray for $5. The pair was easily worth $75. When Jones appeared in court to testify against Ray to-day he swore that he had repeatedly sold bim stolen articles, and that Ray knew he had stolen these.

Poindexter was recently sentenced in Battimore for the offense of disposing of stolen property, and Jones is now awaiting sentence here for his part in the theft, having pleaded guilty to the larreny.

Thomas H. Taylor defended Ray.

SPAIGHT MAY BE REMOVED State Department to Take Action Con-ceroing the Interview With Him, Dr. Statight, vice consul at British Gui-ana, left Washington yesterday for Phil-adelphia, whence he will sail for his post of duty, which is at Demarara, British Guiana. The ordinary course will probably be pursued in his case.

A letter will be written by the Secreonexcious interview in a Washington pa-per, and asking whether he is responsible for the statements attributed to him. An affirmative answer will result in repri-mand or removal.

It: Spaight's position is of such minor importance that the State Department would be inclined to ignore his offense, but the fact that he is nominally an officer of the United States makes it necessary that ac-tion be taken.

Wife Charged With Desertion.

Julian Wall has brought suit for divorce against his wife, near Wall. Desertion is given as the cause for the suit. They were married at the Charch of the Ascension December 3, 1890. In less than two years the wife deserted him, he stated, and she has been away since May 9, 1892.

She is now in Choton, Huron county, Ontario, Canada.

New York, Oct. 25.—Harry C. Jones, photo-engraver and publisher, of No. 92 Fifth avenue, assigned to-day. He has been to business nine years, and in May last claimed assets of $115,000; liabilities, $10,000. He published several art publications and valued his plant at $75,000.
